TODAY'S MOST INFLUENTIAL DESIGN

The A List

Colorful and one-of-a-kind pieces are dominating design this spring. Here, the hottest items from stores around the globe

VANCOUVER
Bensen's Canyon sofa ($5,020), available at Inform Interiors, was designed to keep its cushions in place

NEW YORK CITY
Moss's customers respond to the playfulness of Maarten Baas' Clay collection dining chair ($2,900), which is molded by hand

LAS VEGAS
Dolce & Gabbana's Mademoiselle chair ($950) by Kartell embodies Sin City excess and glamour, according to Unica Home shoppers

SAN FRANCISCO
Design Within Reach's Geneva Sound System (extra large without stand, $1,599) is the perfect antidote to city living

PHILADELPHIA
Minima's clients are struck by the radiant hue of Cappellini's Uni cabinet ($8,820)

SANTIAGO
Interdesign's young customers flock to Magis' chair ONE ($480) because of its high-tech lines and industrial look

BUENOS AIRES
30quarenta's best-selling lamps ($950) were made by recycling glass globes found in an abandoned factory

LOS ANGELES
Handmade by master craftsmen in India, Tom Dixon's Beat Lights ($420 each) stand out to Twentieth clients looking for something distinctive

PARIS

The Printemps Design Boutique's exclusive version of Vitra's Panton chair ($340) in light blue is flying off the floor

AMSTERDAM

Shoppers at Frozen Fountain who are feeling nostalgic favor Vika Mitrichenka's Grandmother's Treasures tea set ($5,515)

HELSINKI

Minimalists are drawn to Aero Design Furniture's Mademoiselle rocking chair (price on request)

LONDON

The brighter, the better at the Conran Shop, where the Luxembourg Trolley ($595) is a hit

MILAN

De Padova's Campo d'Oro table (price on request) can be transformed into multiple shapes

DUBAI

At Traffic, Marijn van der Poll's Do hit ($6,020) is intended to be shaped by its owner into a unique sculpture

BARCELONA

Shoppers at L'appartement look to Myvinilo wall stickers, including this clock ($75), to complete a trendy interior

TOKYO

Vitra's Cite armchair ($3,316) has a simplicity that buyers at Hhstyle.com crave

SYDNEY

Considering Australia's weather, it's no surprise that this large armchair ($11,015) from B&B Italia's outdoor Canasta collection is a best seller at Space Furniture
